

The Methodist Church

Training Officer for Beds, Essex & Herts and East Anglia Districts in collaboration with the Northampton District

We are seeking to recruit a full time person or 2 half time people to work across the area and relate to ecumenical training institutions within the South East Methodist Training Forum.

Do you have a background in one or more of the following: theological education, training, course design, adult education, change management or consultancy?

Do you also have

- A personal commitment to participative ways of working?
- The ability to deliver training outcomes which reflect the Methodist Church's ethos, "Our Calling", "Priorities for the Methodist Church"?
- The ability to think strategically?
- A high standard of presentation and communication skills?
- The ability to reflect theologically and enable others to do so?
- An understanding of the voluntary sector?
- Experience of team work?

This post is open to lay or ordained members in good standing of a Church in association with Churches Together in Britain and Ireland or equivalent.

Salary for lay applicants is based on the Academic and HE Pathway Level 3 £32,795 p.a. (pay spine 35-46 capped at 39); or standard ministerial terms and conditions, plus College Tutor's allowance (20%).

Final salary pension scheme available.

Closing date for applications: Thursday, 25 September 2008 at 12 noon
Interview Date: Wednesday, 15 October 2008

Further details and application pack from:

Carol Griggs, BEH District Office, Stansted House,
Third Avenue, Stansted Airport, Essex CM24 1AE

Contact number: 01279 681976

E-mail: office@districtnet.org.uk