

Going Deeper into God ● Transforming Communities ● Making New Disciples

On the retirement of The Venerable Jonathan Smith, the Bishop of St Albans wishes to appoint an

Archdeacon of St Albans

The Archdeaconry of St Albans covers the western part of the county of Hertfordshire. There is a rich heritage of both urban and rural areas, including major towns such as Hemel Hempstead, Hitchin, Letchworth Garden City, Tring and Watford, as well as the City of St Albans.

The Bishop seeks a colleague who will:

- Encourage and enable flourishing church growth in the Diocesan vision of 'Living God's Love'
- Have a commitment both to inherited and fresh expressions of church
- Enable inspired appointments to vacancies
- Offer experience of engaging with diverse communities inside and outside the church
- Play a full part within a committed, collaborative Bishop's staff team
- Undertake the Archdeacon's statutory responsibilities
- Be a person of faith, passion, imagination and prayer
