

Going Deeper into God – Transforming Communities – Making New Disciples

The Bishop of St Albans seeks to appoint a Rector
for St James the Great, Thorley

We are a God-centred, spirit-filled, forward-thinking parish, located on the south west edge of Bishop's Stortford, who seeks an enthusiastic and gifted minister to lead, teach and inspire us. We want to grow and reach out to our community, making the best use of the incredible gifts we have been blessed with at St James.

We are praying for a Rector who is

- Family-centred, good with children and young people, and able to relate to all ages
- Outward-looking, wanting to form links with the local community
- A good communicator, with strong leadership skills and happy to work with lay members
- Is an encourager and enabler who helps to draw out the gifts of others
- Is a leader in worship, an inspiring gifted speaker and a strong Bible teacher
- Exhibits a willingness to explore new ways of worship, learning and mission
- Is a team player
- Will enable the church to engage with the diocesan vision, 'Living God's Love'

Potential candidates need to contact The Venerable Janet Mackenzie, Archdeacon of Hertford, Glebe House, St Mary's Lane, Hertingfordbury, Hertford SG14 2LE from whom further details can be obtained.
