

‘In conversation with Jamie Prouse’: Prayer in Schools

Top Tips and Take-Aways

Jamie’s top tips and wisdom	Questions to reflect on as a school
‘In its simplest form, prayer is a conversation with God...talking to God about anything and everything, not just when something has gone wrong or we want something...It’s a time to share what’s on your heart, your mind... [underpinned by] hope’	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is there a shared understanding of prayer across staff? Pupils? Would a shared understanding enrich opportunities for spiritual development?
All may choose to pray and/or reflect in their own way. Why not have an intentional spiritual space where pupils can pray and/or reflect in a way which is meaningful for them?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are there opportunities for pupils to grow spiritually through varied experiences of prayer – collective, individual, structured, spontaneous, silent, loud, creative etc.? • How is this/might this be approached in your context?
Prayer is central within how our school vision is lived and loved – ‘Let your shine before others’ (Matthew 5:14). Prayer can be a stepping stone; a call to action. ‘We all have a light that we should not hide under a bushel’.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How is prayer seen within your school’s distinctive Christian vision? To what extent is it seen as an integral part of the life of the school?
