

Supporting your Local School

Led by Helen Matter and Bob Garrard, this course aims

- ❖ to prepare clergy and Readers for working alongside school leaders on the distinctive Christian character of church schools
- ❖ to explore what “Anglican” worship involves and how to ensure provision is child-friendly, educational and distinctive
- ❖ to discuss inclusive approaches to prayer and reflection, and the role and responsibilities of the Christian visitor to Collective Worship in both community and church schools

Helen Matter is an experienced RE teacher and LA RE Adviser. She is currently Schools Adviser for the Diocese of St Edmundsbury & Ipswich where she works with teachers, pupils, governors, clergy and community groups.

Bob Garrard is a former priest and church school headteacher.
