Farewell to SIM Co-ordinator Clare

Revd Clare Baines has stepped down as Coordinator of Support In Your Ministry (SIM) with effect from 19th May 2018 having filled the role for over 5 years. As a key member of the SIM Management Group, she has been responsible for matching Users with suitable Assistants, a role that she has carried out in strictest confidence and with a rare combination of sensitivity, practicality and efficiency. She has also been a source of immense support and wisdom to many involved with SIM.

With effect from the same date Judy Salisbury, who has been Clare's deputy for over two years, took over as SIM Coordinator. Anyone who would like support from SIM should contact her; details are on the SIM webpage:
